Colfactor

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
COLFAX HIGH SCHOOL
COLFAX, NORTH CAROLINA

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1960 dedicates this annual, the COLFACTOR, to Miss Kathleen Embler. Through her boundless friendship, and interest in us, she has gained our respect and admiration. She will linger forever in our memory as one dedicated to serving her fellowman. We shall remember her by these words, "You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

Class Prophecy

As I lie here on the soft, white sands of the Hawaiian Coast with the cool, gentle breeze from the ocean running her fingers through my hair, my mind wanders back to the years 1959-'60; when we, the Seniors, graduated from Colfax High School. Many things have happened since that night.

Here it is ten years later. The "Class of 1960" has reached its goals, and many of its members have climbed even higher.

Miss Embler has married a millionaire and is living a life of luxury.

Mr. Bolen is president of the University of Hawaii. Gene and Bobby Stafford are joint owners of the Hawaiian Village Country Club at Waikiki Beach. Sandra Atkins and Charlotte Williard are their best hula dancers.

Billy Gray is president of the New York National Bank. Iris Smith has recently moved Smith's Beauty Salon to 5th Avenue, New York. Edna Tilley has taken over the hiring and firing of the employees at Governor Clinton Hotel. Nancy Linville is getting acquainted with all the foreign delegates since she is a translator in the United Nations Building, New York.

Bonnie Morgan is head nurse at Duke Hospital in Durham, North Carolina. She is well liked there. Linda Pearman's physical education girls at Colfax are taking many trophies this year. Wayne Gossett is now owner of Gossett's Nursery since his father has retired. Sadie Cox is the best dress designer in the South. Her frocks are the "Southern Originals."

Fred Bame has completed his law course and is now assistant lawyer to Perry Mason. Alma Jean LaRue is doing a great job as Spanish professor at the University of California. Jean

Sapp is in Hollywood finishing the leading role in "Mystery of Teenage Paradise."

Betty Wilson is secretary for Greyhound Bus Company in Beverly Hills, California. Barbara Stigall is private secretary to our retired President Nelson Rockefeller. Shirley George has made Richard Nixon a very efficient stenographer. Barbara Oakes is where she wants to be, secretary to Elvis.

Rex Gray is a jet pilot in the Air Force and Gerald Rice is Fleet Admiral in the Navy.

Jewel Morgan is a model at Belk's in Miami, Florida. This year's new history teacher at the University of Miami is Donald Dillon.

Cindy Potts is doing a good job on the police force in Washington, D. C.

Shelby Long is upholstering the 1970 Fiats and doing a fine job.

Margaret Tilley is a famous woman racer since she won the Darlington 500.

The star center fielder for the Cincinnati Red Legs is Herbert Gray.

McLean's "Outstanding Driver Award" was given to their most competent driver, Garrett Maness.

Bill Reynolds is in Flint, Michigan, designing the 1970 Chevrolets.

Joseph Seigler is the famous detective who is cleaning out the Chicago slums.

Speaking for myself, I am employed by the Barnum & Bailey Circus and perform the task of walking a tightrope across Niagara Falls.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1960, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Sandra Atkins wills her place as treasurer in the Beta Club to Peggy Stephens. "Count it right, Peggy."

Linda Pearman wills her ability to make the highest basketball score in the county to Libby Atkins. "Keep trying, Sis!"

Fred Bame wills his ability to get all his homework in on time to Howard McCollum.

Sadie Cox wills her English book to Rebecca Cox. "I hope you make better use of it than I have, Sis."

Donald Dillon wills his back seat in Miss Embler's English class to Donald Wood. "Hope you have as much fun as I did, Don."

Shirley George wills her ability to memorize twenty poems in her Senior year to Nancy Gossett.

Wayne Gossett wills his ability to "hook and hang on to" that certain girl to Jimmy Quick.

Billy Gray leaves his place on the cheerleading team to anyone in the eleventh grade who has a big enough mouth.

Herbert Gray wills his ability of being the "cutest" boy in the Senior Class to Willard Tucker.

Rex Gray wills his ability to clean out ditches with that black and white '56 Ford to Vernon Dillon.

Alma Jean LaRue leaves her quiet ways to Marie Tucker.

To Jerry Pyrtle, Nancy Linville leaves her power to study for a physics test, letting nothing stand in her way.

Garrett Maness wills his nerve to give a girl a diamond to Edward Clinard. "It takes a lot of it, boy!"

Bonnie Morgan leaves her long hair style to Janice Lemar.

Jewel Morgan wills her ability to "hook and hang on to" that certain boy to Ernestine Westmoreland.

Grace Nuckles leaves her typewriter, No. 14, to Carol Brown, hoping that she can make less errors than she did.

Barbara Oakes wills her love for Elvis to anyone who loves him more than she does.

Cindy Potts wills her hot temper and red hair to Hilda Hiatt. "Be careful how you use your temper."

Billy Reynolds leaves his ability to sleep through Miss Embler's English class as much as possible to George Welborn.

Gerald Rice leaves his "sweeping" ability, which he practices nearly every evening after school, to Wayne Pegram. "It might help you get a wife, Wayne."

Jean Sapp leaves everything that she has acquired during her Senior year except her happiness and "special" penny.

Joe Seigler leaves everything he has to the Junior class with the exception of his girlfriends.

Iris Smith leaves her A's on conduct to Elizabeth Smith. "Stop talking so much, Dunk."

Bobby Stafford wills his bus, No. 133, to anybody who can keep it on the road.

Gene Stafford wills his ability to charm the girls with his "flat-top" to Arland Wood.

Barbara Jean Stigall leaves her ability to "keep up" in sociology to any junior who thinks he would like to try.

To Brenda Willard, Edna Tilley wills her ability to get along with the Yankee boys.

Margaret Tilley wills her ability to become a June bride to anyone who is willing to take the risk.

Charlotte Williard leaves to Wayne Marshall her "A average" in the Spanish class. "Keep trying, Wayne."

Betty Wilson wills her ability to get along with Greyhound Bus drivers to anyone that likes to ride Greyhounds.

I, Shelby Long, leave my place at the Senior homeroom mirror to Lana Kiser. "Try not to wear it out, Lana."

ENTHUSIASM!

Enthusiasm is an important ingredient of success. This is true whether the job is preparing a lesson for tomorrow's class or carrying out an assignment in industry. We at Cone Mills are enthusiastic about the future of the textile industry and there are many job opportunities for those young people who would like to share this enthusiasm with us.
